Advice on being a big sister that only Olivia can deliver

By Wendy M

This is a great framing of the "job" of being a big sister that only Olivia can deliver. This isn't really geared for that initial bring home baby phase (I highly recommend I'm a Big Sister by Joanne Cole), but great for the follow up after the new baby is up and about and the big sister responsibilities grow. The stickers that come with the book are really cute, and a nice bonus.

Setting a good example.

By Bob Walch

Olivia works hard here trying to set a good example for her two siblings. This is an excellent book for older sisters since it encourages them to be good big sisters like Olivia. There are plenty of "tips" here on how to do all of this and set that good example so this is the perfect little book to foster this type of behavior. Thanks Olivia!

Wasn't Quite What I Wanted.

By anywhoohb

This was an okay book. My daughter enjoyed it. But, we purchased it with the specific idea of introducing the concept of a baby sister to her. While it was cute, it wasn't very realistic. In no way is my daughter old enough to do the things Olivia does for her little brothers. And, and newborn doesn't do the same sort of things Olivia's little brothers do.

Cute book, just not for introducing a newborn to big sister.
