Clever and witty

By Moggi

The whole Eddie Dickens series is fabulous.

I enjoy reading it to my wife and son (7) on an evening.

My son goes on to read it himself after we have finished one.

Start from the beginning with Awful End and go from there.

5* to Philip Ardagh and his rather odd sense of humour :)

Great books for a stubborn ten year old.

By Amethyst

My son is a reluctant reader, but the Dubious Deeds books are such fun, so silly, he loves them. I had to buy the whole series. In fact, I like to read them aloud so I don't miss the stories either! A great book for a kid who likes a little irreverent humor in his books.

Dubious Deeds

By atg

OMW! I have never read a more pointless, confusing, horrible book as this! Some people may like Mr. Ardagh's style, but I say, NO WAY! Although I like Scotland and the people in it, this guy is a bit of a loony.
