An excellent fable!

By Bill

I loved the clean writing style - you don't get overly detailed descriptions of locations, for example, but fill in the blanks mentally - nice that the author has faith in the reader. And I loved the characters even more - a good book doesn't require you to memorize who's who - you should just know from what they say and do and that happens in FOLD. But what I loved the most was the unpredictable and poetic story. Beautiful.
