Cassie's life was anything but simple. She was raising three boys on her own and working to make ends meet. Her life didn't have space for love. Jake was a free spirit who was visiting her sleepy little town and had no intentions of settling down. An unlikely match the two find that love doesn't always fit the plans they make. As Cassie learns to see herself through Jake's eyes she finds that the world has more to offer beyond the boundaries she has set for herself. Will they make it work or will they find out that sometimes true love is about letting go? A story full of joy, honesty and finding love when it all seems impossible.

Incredible love story!

By Barbara Frone

This book is an amazing love story! The story pulled me in right away and it never let me go. I enjoyed this story until the end. It is not only an amazing love story, it is about family and relationships. It is about giving. It is about having no regrets. It is about letting go, so you can move on. I would highly recommend this book! I can't wait for Poppy's next book!
