Mystery, danger, suspense and nerve-shredding action in their darkest adventure yet...

When old boss Devon Parker asks PI Eva Roberts to help her ex-partner, Dan Bradley, she's less than ecstatic. But Dan is so broken Eva can't refuse.

Devon Parker believes Dan is on a list of people targeted by a hardened criminal. Dan believes he is being persecuted by Russian mobster Victor Marka. Eva just thinks Dan could be insane.

But as other victims fall, Eva learns the mysterious list could actually be real. Such knowledge leaves serious questions: How long before the enemy strikes Dan? Can Eva and Dan uncover the mastermind behind the list? And can Eva see through the lies before it's too late?

For some it's a long time dying. For others, it's quick and bloody. Only performing at their peak will save Dan from the a dreadful fate. But with so much trouble in their lives, Eva and Dan seem doomed from the start...

LONG TIME READING!!!

By Michael R. Rainey

When I got to the last page and read "to be continued" I knew I would not read anymore. The action often moved rapidly but the plot was thin and the dialogue repeated as they did similar attempts at finding the bad guy. The "partner" was a loser who took chances that were too risky to his female former partner/ spouse.

do not like a book that forces you to buy next edition ...

By Russell Little

do not like a book that forces you to buy next edition to continue story -- cheap trick, book should be written that is scripted to have the reader want to buy next book

So-so book.

By Nancy from California

Disappointing ending. I've read all three books. If the next book ever becomes "free" I MIGHT read it just to finish off the storyline. That is if the author finishes it and doesn't drag it out even more.
