This new edition is good. Things are broken down in such a way that it is relatively easy to learn. Still, like the rest of the series, it throws quite a bit at you and would be best in a classroom setting.

Read and write Devanagari.

By Edward F.

A very thorough book for learning to write Devanagari. Lots of examples of "real" script from signs and handwriting. I like that it doesn't have large empty spaces for me to practice writing on. I'm not paying for empty pages with lines, I can practice writing in a notebook. Great coverage of the conjunct letters. I chuckled when the author wrote that Devanagari was an easy alphabet, yet here he wrote a whole book to learn to read and write it! It's not super hard, but it has complexities.
