Excellent Navigation Tool for Technology Challenged or Old-School Drivers or Just As A Backup
By Edwin

Who uses printed maps anymore? Probably not a lot. I bought this as a backup if all else fails between the built-in GPS in the car or using Waze or Google Maps on Android. We also have them to give to real estate clients that don't have or know how to use technology.

If you need a printed map for any reason, The Thomas Guide is probably the best there is out there.
