WHITE TRASH (THE PLANTATION SERIES BOOK 4) BY GEORGE MCNEILL PDF

From the smoldering ashes of the war-torn south, she rose to challenge destiny in a world seething with desire and corruption...

Publisher's Note An earlier version of this was published in error that contained scanning errors. This is a revised edition.

Beautiful Amy Scullins bore the name of the county hangman, her legal father. Yet by blood she was the daughter of dashing Clayton Deavors and rightful heir to the sweeping acres of The Columns, the Deavors' magnificent plantation that stood proudly over Natchez, Mississippi. But her shameful burden was her unscrupulous family, who sought to break her through the evils of seduction and blackmail.

Though fear and lust loomed to challenge her will, Amy vowed to claim her true heritage. This was her one last chance to wrest a life of grandeur and passion from the lawless ruins of the old South. Her last chance to strip herself of the brand of... White Trash...

I Can't Stop...

By Chalcedoney

I am hooked on this series, sure there is some incest and rape scenes but it is about slavery, slaves were treated as chattel, realistically speaking what do you think went on back then. Look in some graveyards at very old headstones you will see 10 and 12 year olds who died in child birth, how do you think that happened? If you are looking for flowers, chaste virginal kisses this series is not for you. If you want to know how things really were read on, you will be transported down south, feel the heat, sweat, angst, joy of the slaves and masters alike, the splendor of the mansions to the squalor of the quarters! You won't want to put it down! Again there is love, sex and romance however if you enjoy harlequin/Victorian type Romance do not purchase, more than likely you will be offended.

Keep writing I love George McNeill!

By Mimi

I love all of George McNeill's books. I loved the first 3 books in this series, I was so excited for the 4th book to be released. I assumed the 4th book would be a new book but this is not a new book I read it in the 1980's in paperback!

White trash book 4 of the plantation series

By Catherine Blake

The story line was interesting enough and I am satisfied that the villains received their due. However the frequent sentence fragments and misspelled words, or left out words left me wondering if I translated the true meaning of the sentence or paragraph. This, in spite of either the author or publisher making reference that these same errors were noted and eliminated for this punishment. It was very annoying having to guess so frequently at almost every page.
